

Dining For Success Internal Training Video Information

Think of how much of your business takes place at the table.

When it comes to succession planning, you need to prepare your next generation of leaders to successfully represent your company.

You may be mentoring and training them in your business, but what about the skills and training they need for conducting business over a meal?

When dining with customers and clients do your employees understand modern business dining protocol and do they promote your brand with polish and confidence?

After years of presenting business dining seminars that cost organizations thousands of dollars, we have developed a business dining training video that can cost effectively raise the bar for your new hires, new leaders and your whole organization.

At only $550 (plus shipping) a Dining for Success Training Video pays for itself over and over again.

Money Back Guarantee: We are so sure of this video's effectiveness that if you find the skills, confidence and brand of your organization are not enhanced by this DVD, we will refund your money.
